

Council Elections 2012 – Meet the candidates – Alex Lunn

Alex Lunn is standing as Labour candidate for the Craigentenny/Duddingston ward.

He has lived virtually his whole life in South East Edinburgh. His parents came from the Inch and Liberton.

He was brought up in Fernieside, attending St. John Vianney Primary School in the Inch and then Liberton High School. Alex went on to attend Stevenson and Telford colleges.

With the benefit of a great social legacy from a previous Labour Government – Open Learning – Alex was able to work and study at the same time.

Contact details – alexlunn@edinburghlabour.com

Alex Lunn Print