

Council elections 2012 – Meet the candidates – David Key

David Key is the SNP candidate for Fountainbridge/Craiglockhart Ward.

David was born in Dunfermline and won a scholarship to George Watson's College, Edinburgh. On leaving school he joined the Royal Navy and in 25 years as a Naval Officer he saw service in Northern Ireland, the Falklands, the Gulf and Bosnia. He served in submarines and ships but majored as an aviation specialist, flying helicopters from sea and shore bases. He retired from the Navy in 2004 in the rank of Commander and is now employed as an Emergency Services helicopter pilot.

David lives in Edinburgh with his wife, a clinical psychologist at the Royal Edinburgh hospital, and their baby son.

You may contact David by email davidfkey@gmail.com

We also need a copy of his election leaflet if anyone has one?