

Council Elections 2012 – Meet the candidates – Frank Ross

✘ Frank Ross is the SNP candidate for Corstorphine/Murrayfield Ward.

Frank is 52 years old , married to Hannelore with two teenage children. Frank has lived in West Edinburgh for all but two years of his life and is well known locally in both Corstorphine and Murrayfield.

Frank is a qualified accountant and has had a successful career at the highest level in business mainly in the Scottish manufacturing sector, working for Blue Chip names such as Racal, Chubb and Motherwell Bridge.

Frank has also been active in the community as a member of the local bowling Club, where he is currently the Treasurer and in younger days the cricket club. Frank is also currently a member of the management committee of the Corstorphine Youth and Community Centre and a director of the Corstorphine Public Hall Co Ltd.

Although a member of the SNP for many years Frank has only recently become politically active since pulling back from his business interests and brought many of his skills to bear in the Holyrood elections in 2011 where as the Election Agent he ran the successful campaign which resulted in the election of Colin Keir as the first SNP MSP for Edinburgh Western.

Frank now wishes to bring these skills to bear in helping to run an effective and efficient Council for the City of Edinburgh and in particular for the residents of Corstorphine-Murrayfield.
