

Have a ball in Edinburgh this summer!

A ball to kick off summer is being held at The Balmoral next month.

The Scottish Countryside Alliance is currently selling tickets for their annual Thistle Ball. This highly prestigious event will take place on Saturday 19 May 2012 at The Balmoral Hotel. Guests will be greeted to a champagne reception, 3 course meal and reels with an unmissable charity auction and a few other surprises along the way!

 The Scottish Countryside Alliance is a membership organisation which aims to champion country sports, the countryside and the rural way of life and represents the vital interests of rural communities from across Scotland. So what better way to support a such a cause than dance the night away at a a splendid ball?

If you fancy a fun night to kick off the summer whilst celebrating a wide-ranging charitable body, then The Thistle Ball 2012 is the perfect event for you. Tables of 10 are available and individuals and smaller parties are also very welcome.

RSVP the girls at The Lifestyle Company Scotland to purchase your ticket or reserve your very own table.

The Lifestyle Company Scotland

7a Haddington Place

Edinburgh

0131 556 5543

Celia@tlcscotland.co.uk