

Ocean Terminal has flumes this weekend!

✘ Edinburgh thrill-seekers are in for a cracking treat this Easter as M&D's Travelling Theme Park brings a host of rides and attractions to Ocean Terminal including the White Water log flume, which will visit Edinburgh for the very first time.

The Easter egg-stravaganza will open to the public today and will run until Sunday 15 April 2012, ensuring families can take full advantage of all the attractions during the Easter weekend.

On Friday 6 April and 13 April, visitors will be able to buy an unlimited wristband for just £9.99. On all other dates, entry will be £2 which will also give visitors a free ride on Europe's Biggest Travelling Wheel at over 160ft tall. Rides and attractions will operate on a pay as you go basis out with the unlimited wristband.

In addition to Europe's Biggest Travelling Wheel, there will be over 20 rides and attractions for visitors including the Wave Swinger, Xtreme, Miami, Twister as well as the Big Apple rollercoaster and dodgems.

M&D's Travelling Theme Park at Ocean Terminal will be open from 2pm to 9pm each day with parking free for all visitors.

Douglas Taylor, Managing Director at M&D's, said: "After the huge success last year at Ocean Terminal, M&D's is delighted to be here again this year with a whole host of thrill and family rides and attractions including the log flume, something for the whole family to enjoy."
