

Competition – win places at special dinner at Kyloe!

WIN TWO TICKETS TO THE EXCLUSIVE ERADUS WINE DINNER AT KYLOE RESTAURANT

Answer this question correctly and you could win two tickets to the exclusive Eradus wine dinner at Edinburgh's first gourmet steak restaurant and grill, Kyloe. In association with wine merchants Corney & Barrow the Marlborough based winemaker, Michiel Eradus, will be giving his tasting tips at the dinner on a selection of his own hand-picked wines, over a delicious four course dinner. Guests will be able to savour the fruity and delicate flavours of a 2010 Sauvignon Blanc, followed by a more complex and earthy 2009 Pinot Noir and a lusciously pink 2010 Merlot Rosé. Dessert will be accompanied by a Sticky Late Harvest Sauvignon Blanc that can only be described as super-moreish.

Question: What is Kyloe the Scots name for?

You have until Monday 21 May 2012 at 12 noon to send your answer by email with Kyloe Competition in the subject line to theedinburghreporter@gmail.com

The winner (plus one) must be available to dine at 7pm on Monday 28th May 2012. There is no cash alternative to this prize and terms and conditions apply. For more information on Kyloe Restaurant or to book a place on this wine event visit www.kyloerestaurant.com.
