Ryanair, the world's favourite airline, has just announced the start of its new twice-weekly route from Edinburgh to Szczecin in Poland.

Ryanair celebrated its new route at Edinburgh by releasing 1 million £10.99 seats for travel on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays on over 1,000 routes across its European network in June. These £10.99 seats are available for booking on their website until midnight TONIGHT.

Ryanair's Michelle Lowe said:

"Ryanair is delighted to celebrate the start of its new route to Szczecin in Poland from Edinburgh which will operate twice-weekly on Tuesdays and Saturdays, making it perfect for a short getaway. This new route will allow Scots to beat the recession by choosing Ryanair's guaranteed lowest fares and no fuel surcharges. This summer Ryanair will offer passengers a choice over 30 top destinations from Edinburgh to popular holiday spots including Alicante, Bordeaux, Faro and Malta.

"To celebrate the launch of its new route, Ryanair is releasing 1 million seats at fares from £10.99 for travel on Mondays, Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays in June. These "all in" low fares will be available on over 1,000 of Ryanair's European routes but must be booked on www.ryanair.com before midnight on Monday 14 May. Seats on the new route from Edinburgh to Szczecin start from £29.99 one way inclusive."
