

7 Days in Havana for one night only

After last month's star-studded premiere at Cannes Film Festival, Edinburgh film fans will be treated to an exclusive preview screening of 7 Days In Havana at The Caves in Edinburgh, on Wednesday 27 June 2012.

7 Days in Havana is a film created to capture the vibrancy of contemporary Havana – a portrait of an eclectic city, young and forward thinking. The film consists of 7 chapters combined into one feature length film, each directed by internationally acclaimed directors. The film features a directorial debut from Benicio Del Toro (The Usual Suspects, Traffic), a film from award-winning director Gaspar Noe (Enter The Void), with starring roles from Josh Hutcherson (The Hunger Games) and Daniel Bruhl (Inglourious Basterds).

These exclusive 7 Days in Havana events will take place across seven cities over seven nights nationwide from 26 June to 5 July; visiting Edinburgh, Leeds, Bristol, Manchester, Nottingham, Brighton and London, ahead of the films cinema release on 6 July.

Guests will experience a slice of Havana; with DJ's and Cuban vibes, an authentic Havana Club 3 Year Old Mojito upon arrival, and a setting designed to bring a true Cuban feel to your doorstep. After enjoying the film, guests will be invited to stay on for a lively Cuban after-party.

Tickets are available from the 12 June from the venues, on a first come first served basis, priced at £5. For more information, visit www.facebook.com/HavanaClubUK
