

Five things you need to know today

Lothian and Borders Police Live – Witness appeal – Skyscanner – Cycling Safety week and the Bike Breakfast – Potholes

Today at lunchtime we are running a live web chat with Lothian and Borders Police. We will be discussing all kinds of things with Chief Inspector Murray Dykes from 12.30 onwards, so if you have a general policing enquiry, or if you would just like to know more about how it all works then do join us online! Natalie Hoy community safety officer for Western Edinburgh is also joining us from Fettes. The hashtag is #askLBP

Lothian and Borders Police are appealing for information to trace a woman who was involved in an altercation with a man in Edinburgh on Sunday afternoon.

A witness who saw a disturbance between the elderly lady and a man outside the Cameo Cinema on Home Street about 4.40pm called police as it was reported that the man had taken something from the woman, but had then given it back.

The woman is believed to be between 65-70-years-old.

A police spokesman said: “We are appealing for the woman to come forward, although nothing may have been taken, we are still keen to establish exactly what happened.

“In addition, we would ask anyone else who may have been in the street at the time, and who may have witnessed this incident, to get in touch on 0131 311 3131.”

Anyone with information should contact Lothian and Borders

Police on 0131 311 3131, or the charity Crimestoppers in confidence and complete anonymity on 0800 555 111.

Business7 reports that growing Edinburgh firm Skyscanner is moving to take up residence at Quartermile near the Meadows. The company is planning to grow to 300 employees.

This is Cycling Safety Week and you can read more here. There is to be a Spokes Bike Breakfast tomorrow at the City Chambers from 8a.m. See you there?

Tim BrekPoster.2

☒ Today our two photos show the uneven surface at the ☒ junction of Northumberland Street and Nelson Street. If you are a car driver then this is pretty uneven but on a bike it is ten times worse! Where is your local pothole or uneven road surface?