

The Olympic Torch has arrived in Edinburgh!

We were at the Castle tonight where Lesley Forrest brought the torch in to the Castle Esplanade where the Council had given out free tickets to everyone who attended....here are just a few photos to be going on with! (And the nice man with the sunglasses is Lesley's husband Keith....) We had photographers everywhere and will have more for you tomorrow....

listen to 'Lord Provost Donald Wilson at Edinburgh Castle ' on Audioboo