

Edinburgh Festival Fringe is nearly here....

It is almost Fringe time. Easy to tell if you are walking the city centre streets as you can see here.

You can download the Fringe programme below. We would also highly recommend the Fringe App which you can download here.

We will be bringing you reviews and sound from the Festival in all its guises on Edinburgh Reporter Radio. That is not to say we will be at every show but if you would like us to be at your show then please get in touch! theedinburghreporter@gmail.com
