

Great Music in Store this Tuesday

This Tuesday night at 9.30pm at Whistlebinkies Edinburgh Glasgow 4-piece band Sixth Avenue Traffic will play in Edinburgh for the first time since the Hard Rock Rising competition last March.

After the successful release of their 5 track E.P. entitled Whisper, Smile & Wave, Sixth Avenue are hitting the road for a few gigs to warm them up for a bigger tour later in the year, entry to the gig is free and I would recommend getting there at a decent time as this may just be one of those gigs you will happily announce to people:- "I was there."