

Splashback invite you to a film

Film Posterfinal

Splashback is the campaign group trying to reopen Leith Waterworld, which was closed by the council in January 2012.

This Sunday to coincide with the victory parade of Olympians and Paralympians in Edinburgh, they are showing a film. Not just any old film however. This is a film about Portobello Swimming Pool.

And the reason they are showing the film? Well the council is about to announce whether Splashback have been successful or not in getting a bid to lease the pool from them at their meeting on 20 September.
