

Five things you need to know today

Council Budget consultation – Craighouse deadline looms – Tram bye-laws – HMS Edinburgh – Today at the Cameo

Remember to have your say on the council budget process. Here is a helpful video starring Councillors Rankin and Cook who are in charge of the Finance committee. A sub-committee of the Finance and Budget Committee is meeting this morning at the City Chambers. You can read the papers for the meeting here.

You have until 21 December if you wish to object to the planning proposal for the former Edinburgh Napier University site at Craighouse. There is some information here on the Friends of Craighouse website explaining how to do it.

You can add your own suggestions to the council consultation on tram bye-laws here... Much has been made of the rules and regulations but really do you want to hear someone else's iPod blasting in your ear? Have your say before 21 January.

We have been on board HMS Edinburgh when she was last here in Leith and we quite like their Christmas video here...

Today Great Expectations is your Christmas movie at The Cameo at 13:00. Book here.
