

Victim of last week's road collision identified

Lothian and Borders Police have confirmed the identity of an elderly woman who died following a road collision in Edinburgh last week.

She is 81-year-old Mary Dawson from Argyle Park Terrace.

Mrs Dawson was crossing the road outside the Anne Ferguson Building of the Western General Hospital at around 4pm on Tuesday 4th December when she was involved in a collision with a Skoda Superb car.

She was treated at the scene, but sadly, died as a result of her injuries.

Police continue to investigate the circumstances surrounding this incident and anyone who was in the area at the time of the collision and can assist officers with their enquiries is asked to come forward.

Those with information can contact Lothian and Borders Police on 0131 311 3131, or the charity Crimestoppers in complete anonymity on 0800 555 111.
