Wedding Fair says 'I Do' to One Lucky Couple

One lucky couple at the biggest wedding fair in the East of Scotland will get the chance to win an entire wedding package worth £7,000.

Event catering specialists, Sodexo Prestige, have teamed up with the Edinburgh Corn Exchange to celebrate the 10th Anniversary of its bi-annual Wedding Fair.

One loved-up couple will win the prize which includes canapes, a three course wedding breakfast and an evening buffet of hot filled breakfast rolls for up to 100 guests, all supplied by Prestige Scotland.

The prize includes the Wedding reception at the Edinburgh Corn Exchange in the stunning Baron Room for 60 guests during the day and 100 guests in the evening.

Amanda Wrathall, Sales & Marketing Manager at the Edinburgh Corn Exchange and the Wedding Fair said:- “This is a special year for the show. It’s our tenth anniversary and we wanted to have the opportunity to celebrate its success, at the same time allowing us to showcase the Edinburgh Corn Exchange as one of Edinburgh’s unique wedding venues.

“There are many elements to planning a wedding day, with choosing the perfect food and drink being just one of them. It is important to many couples that guests have a great time and enjoy the hospitality on offer, which is why we only work with the very best catering partners.

“We’re really excited to have partnered with Sodexo Prestige, who thanks to its commitment to quality food and drink, do a fantastic job already at helping make people's wedding days as special as they can be. Now with this competition we can help one wedding day be even more special."

Prestige in Scotland has a wealth of experience when it comes to catering for weddings and its passion for food and food heritage includes a commitment to use locally-sourced, sustainable and in-season produce wherever possible.

The firm has been the catering suppliers for the Edinburgh Corn Exchange for the past six years and has supplied fine dining and catering for over 75 weddings

The prize will also incorporate ceremony hire and room dressing, drinks including a welcome sparkling wine or beer for each guest, chair covers and ties, table linen, star cloth surround and coloured roof lighting for extra sparkle and half a bottle of house wine per person to compliment the three course dinner provided by Scotland's leaders in events catering.

To enter couples must ensure they follow the Wedding Fair on Facebook, register to attend the event , visit the show over the weekend (must be the couple getting married) and register at the special Win Your Wedding Stand to be entered into the draw.

The winning couple will be notified on Monday 4th March 2013.
