

Illustrators Exhibition at Gallery Ten

Gallery TEN

Newly opened in the West End of Edinburgh, Gallery TEN is run by creative partnership Paul Musgrove and Gill Tyson. Using their experience in glassmaking and printmaking respectively they specialise in original print and studio glass.

Illustrators At TEN

Some of the most original, quirky and inventive printmaking of recent years has come from artists who studied Visual Communications, Graphic Art or Illustration. This exhibition features a collection of work by illustrators who use printmaking as part of their practice.

Artists include Catherine Rayner and Alice who are both award winning writers and illustrators of children's books, Kelly Stewart who is well known for her prints inspired by Edinburgh's architecture, Robbie Porter and Laurie Hastings both successful freelance illustrators and printmakers living in London. emerging artists Catherine Hiley, Kara Seaman and Mina Braun and new graduates Kate Costigan and Gabriella DiTano.

The exhibition is open from 8th February to 10th March 2013 at Gallery TEN, 10 Stafford Street, Edinburgh EH3 7AU. The gallery is open
