

National Youth Orchestras of Scotland

The National Youth Orchestra of Scotland (NYOS) are hosting a series of Spring and Summer concerts over the coming months, taking in places such as Glasgow, Gateshead, Aberdeen and they will be appearing in Edinburgh on 9 April 2013 at 3:00pm at Greyfriars' Kirk, Edinburgh

Joan Gibson, Chief Executive of NYOS, said:-

“The National Youth Orchestras of Scotland presents the debut concert of its new orchestra for aspiring musicians aged between 12 and 18. The concert will be conducted by James Lowe, whose renowned work with youth orchestras included his direction of the Hallé Harmony Youth Orchestra as featured in the Channel 4 documentary series ‘Orchestra United’.”

NYOS Senior Orchestra

9th April 2013 at 3pm

Greyfriars' Kirk, Edinburgh

Conductor: James Lowe

Repertoire:

Dvorak: Noon Witch

Purcell arr Britten: Chacone

Britten: Gloriana Courtly Dances

Borodin: Symphony No 3

Tickets: Adult £10 | All concessions £5 * Credit card charges apply

Box Office: 0131-668 2019 or visit www.thequeenshall.net

