

Caterer awarded a Royal Warrant

✘ Top Scottish caterer Heritage Portfolio has been granted the Royal Warrant of Appointment to Her Majesty The Queen as Supplier of Catering Services.

Heritage Portfolio has worked with The Palace of Holyrood House since 2002, catering for prestigious events which include The Queen's annual Royal Garden Party.

Ian D'Annunzio-Green, Executive Director of Heritage Portfolio, which recently celebrated its 10th anniversary, said: "It is a fantastic achievement and we are immensely proud. Our ethos has always been about setting the highest possible standard in catering and hospitality and it is wonderful to be recognised in such a special way. As one of only a handful of caterers to hold this honour, I am sure it will enhance our reputation for outstanding quality and attention to detail."

Royal Warrants of Appointment are a mark of recognition of those who have supplied goods or services for at least five years to the Households of HM The Queen, HRH The Duke of Edinburgh or HRH The Prince of Wales. There are around 800 Royal Warrant holders, representing a cross-section of trade and industry ranging from traditional craftspeople to global multinationals operating at the cutting edge of technology.
