

Cupcakes for Mother's Day

Mum's The Word When It Comes To Cupcakes

Cuckoo's the luxury cupcake shop is helping Edinburgh mums get the sweet treat they deserve this Mother's Day with the launch of its latest cupcake range.

Cuckoo's Bakery, at 150 Dundas Street, has created six bespoke cupcakes all designed to show your mum how much you care, making them the perfect gift for mums with a sweet tooth or those looking for something a little different to the usual box of chocolates or bunch of flowers.

Sons and daughters can choose from; Apple and Blackberry Crumble, Raspberry and White Chocolate Cheesecake, Coconut and Cherry, Chocolate Indulgence, Strawberry Fizz and Sticky Banoffee Pudding.

Vidya Sarjoo, co-owner and cupcake innovator at Cuckoo's Bakery said: "Cupcakes are a great way of showing your mum just how much you care about them and the great thing is that they are perfect for mums of any age.

"The traditional box of chocolate and bunch of flowers can be a wee bit predictable and I think our cupcakes would make a welcome surprise for any mum on Sunday – I know my mum would prefer a cupcake.

“The range we have created is fun and indulgent. Mother’s Day is all about mums relaxing and taking some me time, putting their feet up and what better way to do this than with a cup of tea and tasty cupcake?”
