

Canadian Navy visits Edinburgh

Two ships from the Canadian Navy sailed into the port of Leith yesterday afternoon, accompanied by two harbour tugs. First in was an Iroquois-class destroyer named HMCS Iroquois (DDG 280), followed shortly thereafter by a Halifax-class frigate called HMCS St. John's (FFH 340).

Here are my photos.

Submitted by Justin MacArthur

