

Romantic art launches a celebration of Verdi

Chris Elliot and Rachael Brimley with Rodin's 'The Kiss'

To celebrate the bicentenary of the great Italian Opera composer, Giuseppe Verdi, Scotland's oldest company Edinburgh Grand Opera will be performing the love story La Traviata (The Fallen Woman). The production has been made possible by a grant of £20,000 from Creative Scotland.

Rachael Brimley (Violetta), Artistic Director Christina Dunwoodie, Chris Elliot (Alfredo), Conductor and Culture Convener Cllr Richard Lewis.

Trystan Davies spoke to Edinburgh Grand Opera and conductor Councillor Richard Lewis.

listen to 'Rodin's The Kiss and La Traviata' on Audioboo

La Traviata will be performed at King's Theater from the 8th – 11th May 2013

Chris Elliot and Rachael Brimley with Rodin's 'The Kiss'

. Tickets online from the King's Theatre box office or tel. 0131 529 6000, Mon-Sat 11am – 6pm.

