

Bold and colourful “Life Times” at the Union Gallery

"Parkland" by Annette Edgar

After great success in London, multi-award winning and internationally collected artist, Annette Edgar, has launched her first soloshow in Scotland for five years. Annette's new exhibition is called "Life Times" and is a celebration of her travels and friendships around the world through richly distinctive and semi-abstract landscape paintings.

"Life Times" will be at the Union Gallery in Broughton Street until the 3rd of June.

Trystan Davies for The Edinburgh Reporter, spoke to Annette at the gallery preview: