

Police appeal for news about Missing Woman

Police in Edinburgh are appealing for information to help trace a missing woman.

Laura Gorrie was seen leaving her home address in Lapicide Place at around 8.45pm on Wednesday 1st May and was due to visit her mother.

However, the 31-year-old failed to show and has not been seen or heard from since.

Officers are now keen to trace Laura and would urge anyone who can assist with their enquiries to come forward.

She is described as white, 5ft 8in tall with a heavy build, long brown hair and glasses. She was last seen wearing grey jogging bottoms, a grey jumper, trainers and may be in possession of a rucksack.

A Police Scotland spokesman said: "Laura is very confident and outgoing and is comfortable travelling long distances on her own, without informing others as to where she is going.

"Nevertheless we are eager to trace her as soon as possible and ensure she is safe and well.

"Anyone who has seen Laura since Wednesday evening is asked to contact police immediately.

"Similarly, Laura is asked to get in touch with family, friends or police and let us know she is alright."
