Police identify man rescued from the Forth

 Man identified following Firth of Forth incident

Police Scotland Edinburgh Division have today named the man who died following a rescue by members of Queensferry RNLI from a capsized dinghy in the Firth of Forth on Friday, as 73 year-old John Dinning from Marchmont.

Police Scotland is appealing for anyone who saw a small boat in difficulty in the Firth of Forth in the area of Hound Point Oil Terminal around 2pm on Friday to come forward.

You can contact Police Scotland on 101 or the charity Crimestoppers on 0800555111.
