

Competition – Win two tickets to Edinburgh Festival of Cycling – Talk by Juliana Buhring on 22 June

The Edinburgh Festival of Cycling takes place from 15-23 June 2013 at many different venues across the city. There is a wide variety of activities for the cycling enthusiasts among you, and a range of talks for those who don't necessarily need to take to two wheels to enjoy themselves.

One of these talks is given by Juliana Buhring who will explain how she became the fastest woman to cycle all the way around the world.

More details about the talk and how to get tickets here on the EDFOC website.

And now to the competition. To have a chance of winning two tickets to Juliana Buhring's talk on 22 June 2013 please answer this question:-

Question: How many days did Juliana take to set the first women's world record for fastest circumnavigation of the world by bicycle?

CLUE – Answer on the EDFOC website

Send your answer by email theedinburghreporter@gmail.com with 'Edinburgh Festival of Cycling Juliana Buhring' in the subject line to arrive by Monday 10 June 2013 at 10:00pm.

And if you don't win these tickets then Tickets now available on-line or at The Hub box office. Talk takes place at the George Square Lecture Theatre, George Square, EH8 9LJ. Tickets £12 (£10 concessions).

This talk is kindly sponsored by Edinburgh Bicycle Co-op.

The other supporters of the social enterprise include The City of Edinburgh Council, Morton Fraser Solicitors, Allan McDougall Solicitors, Cycle Law Scotland, Newhaven, Alpine Bikes, Leith Cycles, CTC, Hart's Cyclery, Grease Monkey Cycles, Cycling Surgeon, Travel Counsellors, Edinburgh Bicycle Cooperative, Spokes, Edinburgh Leisure and the Embassy of Denmark.