

Edinburgh Festival Fringe – Peter Antoniou: Comedium

Peter Antoniou: Comedium, Sweet Grassmarket, 1 to 25 August at 4pm daily, £7 (£5 concessions)

If you could meet a psychic, and ask them just one question, what would you ask?

Join award-winning 'psychic' comedian, Peter Antoniou with his brand new show that will finally answer all your questions. Whether you've ever pondered what the future holds, wanted to discover facts about your past, discover secrets of the universe, or just want to find out how a psychic spends his day, Peter has answers for you. It's almost as if he has been possessed by the spirit of a cosmic Google, so just sit back, think of your question and enjoy the answers.

This is Peter's 5th year at the Fringe, and with his other Fringe show, Séance, having sold out in June, a whole two months before the Fringe even starts, Peter is proving himself to be a hot ticket already.

Peter Antoniou is The 'Psychic' Comedian (or Comedium if you prefer). The enfant terrible of stand-up comedy and side show entertainment, Peter has used his unique skill set to become an underground sensation and make his exciting live appearances mysterious and memorable. He now presents his remarkable and hilarious live shows around the country for comedy clubs, sell-out theatre audiences and blue chip companies.

Removed from all the regular showbiz trappings, this is an intimate show that is just you, Peter, and some mind blowing mental feats. Peter will spend the hour fondling frontal lobes and tickling funny bones. More accurate than a psychic and just as funny as a stand-up, this show promises no two performances will be the same as you guide what happens. It will all leave you wondering, is your mind safe?
