

Edinburgh Festival Fringe – Raph n Simon Solve a Murda

✘ RAPH N SIMON SOLVE A MURDA

Comedy at The Dram House Upstairs (formerly Wilkie House Upstairs, entrance on Guthrie Street)

14:15

14-24 August 2013 (not 20 August)

Raph N Simon Solve A Murda is a fast paced, single scene, comedy play written and performed by cult comedians Raphael Perahia and Simon Fazey. The show is directed by Dominic Spin.

It's the story of Raph and Simon, two gansta rap loving slackers who can't leave the coat room of a hotel party until they prove they are not killers. Find out if they'll be able to answer the big questions:

- How strong is a friendship when you find a dead body?
- Do you have to keep kosher if you're severely allergic to fish?
- Are rap beefs about hurt feelings?

And most importantly Biggie Small's conundrum:

'WHO SHOT YA?'

Raphael Perahia is a comedian and actor. He performed stand up at the Edinburgh Fringe Festival in 2012 in the show Everything

Is Purple and The Wilmington Players: Good Improv Show. 'One of the freshest, liveliest, funniest voices of comedy.' Scott Capurro.

Simon Fazey is a comedian and actor. He trained at the Upright Citizens Brigade Theatre in New York. He performs regularly with the improv group Upshot and teaches improvised comedy.

Dominic Spin is a director, choreographer and actor. He is the Co-founder of Studio 68 London, one of the best dance studios in the UK and fast-becoming one of the strongest in Europe. As an actor his theatre credits include High School Musical, Fame (West End & Tour), Hairspray (West End & Tour), the UK premiere of The Wedding Singer and Barbara Streisand's Hello Dolly. He recently played Simon Zealot in Jesus Christ Superstar.