

Flybe – just pay the taxes and fly

Flybe announces 'Just pay taxes and charges' seat sale on key Scottish routes

Limited time offer available on six destinations from Edinburgh

Flybe, Europe's leading regional airline, has announced a limited time 'Just pay taxes and charges' seat sale for online bookings made for return flights between 21-25 June 2013 at midnight.

The offer will be available on 15 key routes from Scottish airports, including six destinations from Edinburgh and will apply for travel between July 22nd and December 14th, 2013 excepting those that only operate during summer.

Customers wanting to take advantage of these limited-time offers can also ensure they secure the best possible value for money even if they haven't already thought about or finalised their holiday plans by 'holding' their online fare for 24 hours by choosing Flybe's new Price Lock-Down product at the time of booking, it being the only product of its type currently available for consumers in the UK aviation market.

Full details available at www.flybe.com

Meantime The Herald report this morning that Flybe have just announced a pre-tax loss of £40.7m in the last year which they have described as "the most challenging year."