

The Moonwalk In Pictures

Thousands of men, woman and children from all ages and all parts of the country pounded the streets of Edinburgh last night taking part in the 2013 Edinburgh Moonwalk. The walkers left at 11pm last night from Leith Links and some walkers where still out on the route at 10am today.

Before the walk participants could get massages and 'The Beatles' wowed the crowds with a variety of hits. Comperes for the evening weere Grant Stott & Arlene from Forth One.
