

Woman suffers smoke inhalation after Telford Road house fire

A woman was treated for smoke inhalation after a fire broke out in a ground floor flat on Telford Road on Saturday.

It is understood the fire broke out in the bedroom of the property and crews using breathing apparatus and a hose reel extinguished the fire.

A neighbour however required treatment for the effects of smoke inhalation.

