

Edinburgh Festival Fringe – The Project

✖ The Project, Zoo Monkey House, 2 to 26 August (except 'odd number' dates), £8 (£6 concessions)

Multi-award winners in the National Student Drama Festival 2013, the renowned Nottingham New Theatre present The Project.

A highly contemporary piece specially created for the Edinburgh Festival Fringe, The Project challenges ideas concerning the role of theatre in society and the very nature of the spectator in the arts. This original production combines theatrical entertainment with an unnerving and intriguing search for authenticity in performance. The Project presents sharp dialogue, physical theatre and a unique experience that provokes the audience to question their neutrality.
