

Lothian Buses up for three awards

Lothian Buses are in the running for three prestigious awards at The National Transport Awards, designed to acknowledge innovation, excellence and progress across all areas of transport and are regarded as amongst the highest industry accolades in the UK.

Lothian Buses has been shortlisted from hundreds of entries in this year's Bus Operator of the Year, Contribution to Sustainable Transport and Improvements to Bus Services categories. The awards ceremony will take place on 17 October 2013 at the Westminster Park Plaza Hotel in London.

In 2011, the Company won the Scottish Transport Award for Excellence in Technology and Innovation and this year won the prestigious Scottish Transport Award for Contribution to Environmental Travel.

Chief Executive of Lothian Buses, Ian Craig, said of the nominations:- "We work hard to make sure our customers receive the best possible service, so to be shortlisted for these prominent UK awards is fantastic news and a credit to everyone at Lothian Buses."
