

VIDEO – Edinburgh Reacts to naming of Royal baby

✘ On Monday 22 July 2013 at 4:24pm Her Royal Highness The Duchess of Cambridge gave birth to a baby boy, weighing 8lbs 6oz. The baby's name was revealed as George Alexander Louis on Wednesday 24 July 2013.

George, the Greek for farmer and 'earth worker', is the 12th most popular name in the UK, although this popularity may well rise when the next count is conducted.

We asked some passers-by what they thought of the name 'George'.
