New Town Theatre – ballet, revue

Dance at its most daring and seductive. Classically trained dancers combine ballet and burlesque in a sensuous display of bodies and music, all performed with a heady dose of wit.

Think high heels, husky cabaret singers, gaggles of male cygnets, a fan dance ménage a trois... this unforgettable hour will leave you breathless, stimulated, and wanting more.

The 30th Edinburgh International Book Festival opened yesterday with crowds thronging Charlotte Square Garden, and many shows a sell-out.

Bill Scott who wrote the book about the Buttercup Dairy has written to us to tell us of his new blog.

I have added a blog page to the Buttercup website. Anybody who is interested can access it at
