

Hurry! Win tickets to James and the Giant Peach at the King's this week!

To recognise our fabulous August visitor numbers we asked some of our contacts to offer our readers something as an Edinburgh Reporter Reward.

Our unique users in August were over 100,000 which is an amazing number of people – and two and a half times the number of people reading our website in January 2013.

Today the Edinburgh Reporter Reward which we have on offer is tickets for James and the Giant Peach at the King's this week.

What you have to do is send us an email to theedinburghreporter@gmail.com with Edinburgh Reporter Rewards in the subject line giving us the answer Giant Peach.

The winning entry will be selected from all winning entries received by Tuesday 17 September 2013 at 5:00pm.

The Birmingham Stage Company is proud to present a brand new production of JAMES AND THE GIANT PEACH by Roald Dahl adapted by David Wood.

It's Roald Dahl's amazing story about a young boy and a giant peach that takes him and his insect friends on the adventure of a lifetime!

James is a lonely young boy who lives with Aunt Sponge and Aunt Spiker, the most revolting Aunts in England. They make him work and slave and never let him play with other children.

Then one day he meets a mystical old man who gives him a bag that contains the strongest magic the world has ever known. When James accidentally spills the bag near an old peach tree, the most incredible things start to happen – and James's adventure has just begun!

Imaginative sets, foot-tapping songs, fantastic choreography and brilliant puppets.
