

Police issue photographs of books stolen from central library

Police in Edinburgh have issued two photographs of items stolen during a theft from the Central Library on George IV Bridge on Tuesday.

The items include a small sketchbook containing drawings from 19th Century artist Henry R Westwood valued at around £1000.