

Spartan Army heading for Coatbridge

The famous 'Spartan Army' will travel to Coatbridge to face Scottish League Two side Albion Rovers in the second round of the Scottish Cup.

The trip to Cliftonhill will be the first time that Spartans have ever faced the 'Wee Rovers' and is scheduled to take place on Saturday 5th October.

Dougie Samuel's men earned their place in the 2nd Round draw with a 2-0 win against Edinburgh University at Peffermill on Saturday, thanks to two goals from on form striker Donal Henretty.

Meanwhile Edinburgh City will host Fraserburgh at Meadowbank, Whitehill Welfare will travel to Forthbank to face Stirling Albion, and Preston Athletic will face Queens Park in Glasgow.

The draw was made earlier today by former Celtic defender Lee Naylor.

Scottish Cup 2nd round draw in full

Gala Fairydean Rovers v Clyde

Turriff United v Wick Academy

Albion Rovers v Spartans

Queen's Park v Preston Athletic

Brora Rangers v Cove Rangers

Dalbeattie Star v Montrose

Edinburgh City v Fraserburgh

Berwick Rangers v Peterhead

Keith v Elgin City

East Stirlingshire v Threave Rovers

Stirling Albion v Whitehill Welfare

Auchinleck Talbot v St. Cuthbert Wanderers

Formartine United v Inverurie Loco Works

Fort William or Newton Stewart v Lossiemouth or Culter

Buckie Thistle v Annan Athletic

Deveronvale v Linlithgow Rose