Police in Edinburgh have recovered over £5,000 worth of drugs from two properties in the Capital.

Officers carried out separate searches of addresses in Muirhouse Gardens at around 4.50pm yesterday (Wednesday).

A half-kilo of amphetamine worth around £5,000 was seized from within one location, while £200 worth of cannabis was found inside the other property. Police are now following a positive line of enquiry in relation to both searches.

Detective Inspector Stuart Harkness said: “Our communities continue to supply us with vital information relating to drug crime in their area and we continue to respond with the activity demonstrated during yesterday’s searches.

“Street-level drug dealers are a blight on our communities and Police Scotland is committed to identifying these individuals and bringing them to justice.
