

Edinburgh Airport seeks school choirs to bring Christmas cheer to passengers

Edinburgh Airport is looking for school choirs to bring some festive cheer to its passengers this Christmas.

Choirs from local primary and secondary schools are being invited to apply to come into the airport to sing Christmas songs and carols between 11:30-14:30 on 09-13 and 16-20 December

With December a busy time for the airport, school choirs will bring that added sprinkling of festive spirit and brighten up passenger's journey through the airport. Choirs are invited to hold a bucket collection for their school and Edinburgh Airport will match fund what they raise up to £250.

If you are interested in applying the please email edcommunications@edinburghairport.com and the airport will send out an official application form.
