

EDINBURGH ART FAIR, 15-17 November

The 9th edition of the EDINBURGH ART FAIR will open its door at the Corn Exchange, Edinburgh between the 15th and 17th November. This is a unique opportunity to see such a wide variety of art. 50 galleries from Scotland, the rest of the UK and Europe will present art from renowned artists as well as recent graduates working in the widest range of media including: oil painting, sculpture, printmaking and street art. The Fair is open to every one: from seasoned collector to those considering buying art for the first time and caters for all tastes and budgets. The Fair is also a great day out and a full experience. There will be artist talk, printmaking workshops, painting classes as well as demonstrations by artists. In particular a giant drawing of the Fair itself will be created before your eyes and street artists will be let loose on a wall. Families are particularly welcome at the Fair, there is a complimentary creche offering children many hands-on art activities.

A fully licensed cafe offers light meals and teas and the champagne bar operates in the main hall.

The Fair is open Friday 15th to Sunday 17th November: from 11am until 6pm (5pm on the Sunday). Tickets are £5 (£3 concession), children under 16 are free when accompanied by an adult. The Corn Exchange, 11 New Market Road, Edinburgh EH14 1RJ, is a two minute walk from Slateford station.

Submitted by Laura Gressani

