

Edinburgh's 10:04s are appearing at Edinburgh's Hogmanay

One of Edinburgh's up and coming bands the 10:04s say that they like Joy Division and Arcade Fire. Well they really can stand on their own two feet because their music is now judged so good that they have been asked to play on the main stage at Edinburgh's Hogmanay....

We caught up with Steven Bolton after a bus tour of Edinburgh (it was cold!) when three of the band members entertained us, and asked him about the New Year gig.

Time to get your tickets is now. Edinburgh's Hogmanay tickets are on sale from the website and you can get more information on the Concert in the Gardens here.
