

Fashion Show for Poppyscotland

✘ The Royal Scots Club, Edinburgh are delighted to announce a forthcoming charity event in aid of Poppyscotland on Friday 8th November, 2013 just prior to Remembrance Sunday.

Poppyscotland is the leading charity supporting ex-Servicemen and women and their families in Scotland. The charity's largest annual fundraising campaign, the Scottish Poppy Appeal, takes place in November and raises over £2 million every year. The money raised enables Poppyscotland to provide financial assistance to thousands of ex-Servicemen and women as well as helping to fund specialist services in areas such as employment, housing and mental health.

Colin Flinn, Head of Fundraising from Poppyscotland said:- "We are delighted to be working with The Royal Scots Club once again. It promises to be an enjoyable evening and, importantly, it will raise vital funds that will make a real difference to the lives of veterans and their families."

The evening starts at 6.30pm with a welcome glass of fizz, followed by a stunning fashion show at 7:00pm by LK Bennett showing a range of outfits from their Winter Collection which will take the audience "from desk to dinner".

Renowned for their quintessentially British style, but with a modern twist LK Bennett's outfits will be accompanied by a range of bespoke hats from talented local milliner Hannah Young – and a bespoke hat will be designed and made for one of our lucky winners in the charity raffle.

The evening is then rounded off with a superb two course dinner with wine. Tickets £42pp or Table of 10 for £400.

All proceeds on the evening will go to Poppyscotland.
