

Man arrested after disturbance in Hillside Crescent

A man has been arrested following an incident in city centre earlier this morning.

A Police Scotland spokesman said: “Police in Edinburgh responded to a derelict building in Hillside Crescent at around 5.40am on Monday 25th November following reports of a man causing a disturbance within.

“Officers and other emergency services are still currently in attendance and local road closures are in place while police work to ensure this incident is resolved safely.