

More delights from the mystery book sculptor

The anonymous artist responsible for the mysterious paper book sculptures that have been gifted to various literary institutions in Edinburgh has been hard at work again, this time supporting Children's Hospice Association Scotland (CHAS) for a Highland event.

The artist has made a wonderful new paper book sculpture, Alice in Wonderland, to be raffled by Fourplus at their annual exhibition in Plockton this week. Commission from the sales of all artwork over the weekend is being donated to CHAS whose headquarters are in Craiglockhart.

The exhibition is being held at the Plockton Gallery, Innes Street, Plockton IV52 8TW and The Shores restaurant, 30 Harbour Street, Plockton IV52 8TN next weekend.

CHAS fundraiser, Alison Rennie said: "We're thrilled that this amazing piece is being raffled to raise funds for CHAS and are sure it will attract a huge amount of interest."

If you would like to support CHAS please contact 0131 444 1515 or go to www.chas.org.uk

