

Perfect Christmas gift for him at Players Lounge

Suzie Gillespie, owner of the Players Lounge, explains why good grooming is all-important – and why it's the perfect Christmas gift for the man you love.

What do you buy the man who has everything?

The answer is: the chance to look good and feel good. Looking his best will give him added confidence – just what he needs for a job interview, an important client meeting, his wedding day, or a special date, to name but a few big occasions.

 We have the solution for the ideal Christmas present: a Players Lounge gift voucher. You can buy these for any amount you choose, or for a specific treatment. And they are great value for money too.

Just some of the treatments on offer include a shampoo and haircut, with a scalp massage, for just £28.50; facials from £35-£80 – all in the comfort of our fully reclining barber's chairs, or how about the ultimate shaving experience? We will pamper the man in your life with a hot towel shave, using exclusive products, for only £30, or £38 if you'd like to include a relaxing neck and shoulder massage.

The men of Edinburgh love our grooming packages too. For between £56-£76, these can include a facial, hot shave, shampoo & conditioner, scalp massage and a haircut, leaving him groomed and styled for his big day.

So, why not drop by our salon at 161a Rose St, to buy a voucher now? Or give us a call on 0131 225 3188. You can also find out more about The Players Lounge and our treatments at www.the-players-lounge.com and follow us on Twitter @PlayersLounge.
