

Police name Dunbar teenagers who died in collision on Monday

Police in East Lothian have confirmed the names of three teenagers who died in a road collision on Monday evening.

They are Jenna Barbour, aged 18, 15 year old David Armstrong and 16 year old Josh Stewart, all from Dunbar.

The three received fatal injuries when the Peugeot 206 in which they were travelling collided with a wall on Lime Tree Walk, Tynninghame around 8.20.