

Three teenagers killed after collision in East Lothian

Police Scotland is appealing for witnesses following a fatal road collision in East Lothian.

The incident happened around 8.25pm yesterday (Monday) on an unclassified road at Tynninghame.

A Peugeot 206 left the road and collided with a wall, resulting in all occupants sustaining serious injuries. As a result, an 18-year-old woman and two males aged 15 and 16, subsequently passed away.

Another male, aged 16, is currently being treated within the Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh.

Road Policing Officers are investigating the circumstances surrounding this collision and anyone who can assist with their enquiries is asked to come forward.

A Police Scotland spokesman said: "Tragically, this incident has resulted in three young people losing their lives and we are currently trying to establish exactly what has happened.

"Any motorists who were on the road at the time and have information that can help with our investigation is asked to contact police immediately."
