

Appeal for witnesses following theft of antique jewellery worth £40k during break in

Police in Edinburgh are appealing for witnesses following a high value break-in from a business in the West of the city.

The incident happened in the early hours of Saturday morning (7th December) at Shapes Furniture and Auction House on Bankhead Medway.

Approximately £40,000 worth of antique jewellery was stolen.

Detective Constable Joyce Gunderson from Police Scotland said: "This was a brazen crime which has led to the theft of antique jewellery worth thousands of pounds, being stolen.

"We are appealing to anyone who was in the area around the time of the incident, who noticed anything suspicious, to contact police as a matter of urgency.

"Similarly anyone who believes they have been offered the stolen items for sale, or has any other information that can assist our inquiries, should also get in touch."

Anyone with any information should contact Police Scotland on 101, or make an anonymous report through Crimestoppers on 0800 555 111.
