

Christmas gift ideas

Best Christmas gifts this year

If you've yet to sort your Christmas list then you might need some tips and tricks on finding the best gifts for everyone this year.

From tablets to gadgets, jumpers to smartphones, we've found some fabulous gifts for whoever you need to shop for. Remember that the last delivery days are coming up soon if you shop online so it's time to bite the bullet and get that Christmas shopping all sewn up!

Obviously, many of us are struggling for cash and can't necessarily afford the top of the line presents, much as we'd like to, so we've found a luxury and budget options to cover all bases.

Best gifts for him – luxury

You can't beat the best technology for the best kind of Christmas present so if you're looking to treat the man in your life, then get the new iPad Air. Thinner and lighter than ever, it's the iPad souped up and is most definitely the best iPad yet. It has an A7 processor and is guaranteed to fulfill all the streaming and gaming needs he can possibly have. Whether he's into a bit of online gambling at Ace-Ten or prefers to stream movies on Netflix, this little baby will do everything he needs – as well as looking amazing.

Best gifts for him – budget

You can now pick up the original Kindle brand new for £69. If he's into reading and needs something to do on his morning commute then you can't beat the Kindle. With a hugely long lasting battery life, loads of titles to choose from at bargain prices, it's a reading revolution and, with this original model, you have the perfect e-reader without spending a fortune.

Best gifts for her – luxury

If the lady in your life is a coffee lover, then they will absolutely love the Starbucks Verismo 600. It's just under £200 and pumps out real Starbucks coffee at the touch of a button, which is pretty much the holy grail for coffee lovers! It also looks sleek and sophisticated and will be a great addition for any kitchen.

Best gifts for her – budget

You can't beat perfume as one of the most beloved and traditional Christmas gifts. And, even if her signature scent is usually super expensive, with some judicious online shopping and price comparisons online you should be able to grab a bargain. Try here for scented delights and if not, then it's always worth checking high street shops during the run up to Christmas as prices tend to be slashed.

Featured article